

His Will

~complete lyrics~

His Will

His will is, to bring another soul to glory,

His will is, to go out and tell the story,

The story of, His rise back to glory,

And how He was sent to do His will.

The Master said, I am He,

The only Son of the Father,

And it is through Me,

That you'll be set free,

To be His sons and daughters,

The Master said, come onto me,

All you that are heavy laden,

Take my yoke and see,

How blessed your life will be,

With Me as your haven.

The Master said, you'll be free,
Once washed clean by the blood,
Turn away from sin,
Let your life begin,
A life filled in His love.

Words by Gilbert Mathers / Words and Music by Jules

© 1996 Jules Gouin Music

SOCAN

His Blessings

Auburn shades and amber glow,

In the rising sun,

Illustrate the Father's love,

Walk along a quiet shore,

When day has just begun,

His blessings, there are plenty of,

Watching children at play,

Their laughter, will carry you away,

They are, the life he gives,

This newborn world today.

Dew drops on a rose in bloom,

That glistens in the sun,

Illustrate the Father's love,

Greetings of wild geese in flight,

So many led by one,

His blessings, there are plenty of,

Tender moments that you spend,
To comfort anyone,
Celebrate the Father's love,
Give yourself as did the "Son",
Through you His sheep He'll tend,
His blessings, there are plenty of,

Give yourself as did the "Son"
Through you a heart He'll mend,
His blessings, there are plenty of.

© 1996 Jules Gouin Music

SOCAN

A Child of the King

To my gracious Lord, I offer all praise,
He is with me, through all of days,
Peaceful is the life, saved by His grace,
And one day I know, we'll meet face to face.

For I am a child of the King,
And He calls all his children unto Him,
He has promised life eternal,
With childlike faith, you will enter in,

So gracious was His life,
There would be only one,
He prayed in the garden,
"Thy will be done",
He drank the cup, and paid with His blood,
I am grateful to God,
for His only Son,

Now I am a child of the King,
And it is all because of Him,

His guarantee, is life eternal,
The time is now, for us to turn to Him,
With a childlike faith, we will enter in.

Words by Gilbert Mathers / Words and Music by Jules

© 1996 Jules Gouin Music

SOCAN

I'll Tell You Something

I felt the sun this mornin',
There was a coolness in the breeze,
I sat to listen, to a trickle,
Of a slow movin' stream,

In my mornin' time with the Lord,
There are so many dreams,
That I'm thankful for,
And I'll tell you somethin',
And of this you can be sure,
When you give your heart to Jesus,
He will open every door,

In my mornin' time with the Lord,
There are so many dreams,
That I'm thankful for,

There were times when I almost,
Did set this life aside,
But He stayed always beside me,

He never once, did leave my side,

In my mornin' time with the Lord,

There are so many dreams,

That I thank Him for,

And I'll tell you somethin',

And of this you can be sure,

When you give your life to Jesus,

He will open every door.

© 1996 Jules Gouin Music

SOCAN

What Does the Lord Require?

What does the Lord require of me,
To justly do His will,
To walk humbly with my God,
And give back of my skill,
Receive my life O' Lord,
As I obey Your call,
You know that I live for You,
I give to You my all,

Lord, my Lord, Lord, my Lord,

What does the Lord require of me,
The desire to do no ill,
For how I treat my brother now,
Shall return to me as well,
To give myself to those in need,
With compassion and real love,
For all that's good comes from Him,
As peaceful as a dove,

What does the Lord require of me,
To fight and keep my faith,
So that I may obey the laws,
Remaining in God's grace,
Hold me in your tender care,
And never let me stray,
Give me strength and courage Lord,
As you meet my needs this day.

Words by Gilbert Mathers / Words and Music by Jules

© 1996 Jules Gouin Music

SOCAN

Trust in Him

When your fears have got you on the run,
Again those worldly cares arise,
And so the constant fight is never won,
Your spirit longs to let it fly,
A hardened heart must realize,
You must

Trust in Him, To be blessed in Him,
Let the Saviour in, He'll free you from all sin,

When you ask of Him to set you free,
Be patient for the times will change,
For He and He alone did part the sea,
Not looking on them with disdain,
He freed His people from their pain,
They had to

When the warm sun shines upon your face,
And there's a stillness all around,
That is when you'll feel the Lord's embrace,

Ever peaceful, ever love,

Everlasting from above,

And when you trust in Him, you can rest in Him,

Let "Christ Jesus" in, He'll free you from all sin,

Because you trust in Him, you can rest in Him,

Christ will hold you fast, and you'll be free at last.

"Because of Him, you are saved from Sin"

© 1996 Jules Gouin Music

SOCAN

There is Something Better

There is something better, than God's blessings,
That's having a Blessor,
And the message He brings,
Knowing the Blessor, has made my heart sing,
And until I meet Him, I'll make these words ring,

There is something better,
Than God's great gifts,
That's having the giver, and the peace
That he brings,
Knowing the Giver, has given me wings,
And until I meet Him, to Jesus I will cling,

I have no fear of dying,
For with Jesus I will be,
I rejoice in living,
Knowing Jesus lives in me,

There is something better, than God's healing,
That's having the Healer, and the comfort

He brings,
Knowing the Healer, bears all suffering,
And until I meet Him, His praises I will sing.

Words by Charles "Tremendous" Jones / Words and Music by Jules

© 1996 Jules Gouin Music

SOCAN

I Know I'll Get Through

[This song was written by Billy, especially to help friends and families who have suffered the loss of a loved one to suicide.]

I shall walk this path,
All by myself though You'll always,
Be part of my life,
Your memory shall be, forever with me,
All those good times, remain in my heart.

There are still many dreams,
I wish to fulfill for they linger,
Somewhere in my mind,
I will carry on here, overcoming my fear,
For the good Lord is right by my side.

Something happened, that took You away,
Your hurt was too great to endure,
No one was to blame, But one must overcome pain,
Our task is to live through our grief,
For God may need us for some greater deed.

I shall go, through life,
Seeking answers unknown for there always,
Be uncertainties,
But I must not let these doubts, turn me about,
And my dreams, one by one will come true.

Jesus, friend on You I depend
To guide me where I need to go,
For with you beside me, my mind shall be free,
And there's nothing that I cannot do,
For with your help, I know I'll get through.

© 1996 Bill Drouillard, Drouillard Pub. Inc.

SOCAN

I Rest (in the Lord)

I know that you are with me,
I feel that you are there,
My faith in Jesus, saves me from despair,
The timely ways you show me,
While guided through each day,
These are the treasures, no one takes away,

I rest in the Lord,
He is always with me,
In my walk with the Lord,
Sometimes He carries me,

I know that when you're with me,
No harm can come my way,
My hope in Jesus, forever will stay,
As long as you're beside me,
The call that I hear, burns in my heart still,

I know that now you're with me,
I hear the still small voice,

My love for Jesus, is my only choice,
There is only one redeemer,
He came that we may live,
No greater gift, that a father could give.

© 1996 Jules Gouin Music

SOCAN

Creation

You know the sun will rise every mornin',
And the moon will come out each night,
The stars will appear when old sol disappears,
The heavens will glow with the light,

If one ever doubts his existence,
Just lift your eyes above,
Nothing here on earth can, ever be more certain,
Just gaze on His creation of love,
A butterfly dancin' in the sunlight,

A goldfinch chatterin' to his mate,
A meanderin' little stream, a landscape in a dream,
A gentle breeze to caress your face,
Just stop, and take a look around you,

At a world so great so pure,
Nothing here on earth can, ever be more certain,
One Lord created this for sure,
A misty valley in the moonlight,

A snowcapped mountain peak,
A sunsets final hour, the fragrance of a flower,
The rosy blush of a young girls cheek,
There's nothing but our Father in heaven,

That could make a world so grand,
Nothing here on earth can, ever be more certain,
Observe the master's plan,
For nothing that's so splendid, need ever be defended, and there's no doubt,
God created man.

© 1996 Bill Drouillard, Drouillard Pub. Inc.

SOCAN

Louisiana Moon

Shine, Louisiana moon,
Flickering on the water,
Dancing on the bayou,
Glow, little firefly glow,
Twinkling in the twilight haze,
Rippling waves, lazy summer days,

Sway, old weeping willow sway,
Bowing in the breeze,
Lying in your shade,
Nightingale, singing me a lullaby,
A song so old, of love so bold,
And tales untold,

Memories of you enchant me,
Fill my mind with your song,
Sing me back to the place,
I embrace, Louisiana home,

Shine, Louisiana moon,

A beacon in the night,
Guiding me homeward,
Sweet, Louisiana moon,
Calling me back home again,
Old faithful friend, Louisiana-a moon.

© 1996 Bill Drouillard, Drouillard Pub. Inc.

SOCAN

Look Unto Jesus

He fulfilled the father's will,
He made the sea be still,
So look unto Jesus,
The answer is Him,
For all fear and doubt,
He'll cast to the wind,
Look unto Jesus,
Take Him at His word,
All battles made His,
Make all victories yours.

He instilled the Father's will,
He made the blind to see,
So look unto Jesus,
The answer is Him,
A soul that's despairing,
He'll gently take in,
Look unto Jesus,
Take Him at His word,
A prayer made in earnest,

Shall no doubt be heard,

His will is the Father's will,

He sits at His right hand,

So look unto Jesus,

The answer is Him,

For He is the Christ,

The atonement for sin,

Look unto Jesus,

Take Him at His word,

For He'll keep His promise,

You can be assured.

Words by Gilbert Mathers / Words and Music by Jules

© 1996 Jules Gouin Music

SOCAN